Morning Briefing

Monday 12 October 2026. Generated 06:30 BST (London). Data collected between 05:15 and 06:30 BST. London is on BST (UTC+1).

Data quality: this run had limited access to primary sources. Several figures rest on a single source or are marked n/a. Nothing has been estimated.

Holidays: Tokyo closed (Sports Day). US bond markets closed (Columbus Day), US equities open.

2. Important news

US 30Y Treasury auction cleared at 5.618%, highest since 2000. Source: RoboForex note, search summaries. Long-end yield stress keeps pressure on equity valuations and credit.

Oil eased about $1.50 after Trump said Putin agreed to supply diesel to the US. Source: AP via WSLS. Brent held near $103-104 after a Houthi strike on Saudi infrastructure pushed it above $105.

Kospi fell 3.1% to 6,416.17 on Monday. Source: AP. Sharpest move in the Asian session. Cause not confirmed in sources.

S&P 500 ended Friday 0.59% below its record, with a 1.2% weekly gain. Source: AP via La Nacion, CNBC. Tech led as oil and yields eased from highs.

Week ahead: bank earnings Tuesday, US CPI Wednesday. Source: Stocktwits, TradingKey. CPI consensus 3.6% y/y vs 3.4% priors, with the Fed having hiked to 3.75-4.00% in September.

3. European futures (pre-open) [collected ~06:15 BST]

Contract	Level	Expected move

No sourced pre-open futures quotes were found. Context: oil lower, Kospi sharply lower, Hang Seng and Shanghai roughly flat.

4. Yesterday's closes (Friday 9 October) [~18:00 BST Fri]

Index	Close	Change
STOXX 600 (reference)	631.55	+0.97%
Euro Stoxx 50	n/a	n/a
DAX	25,087.27 (single source, unverified)	n/a
CAC 40	7,803.33 (single source, unverified)	n/a
FTSE 100	10,552.05 (single source, unverified)	n/a

STOXX 600 from CNBC. DAX, CAC and FTSE levels come from one weekly report (Investomine) whose percent changes look like weekly moves, so daily changes are n/a. Today is Monday: this is Friday's close.

5. US markets: yesterday's session (Friday 9 October) [~21:00 BST Fri]

Index	Close	Change
S&P 500	7,811.54	+0.59%
Dow Jones	51,654.95	+0.83%
Nasdaq Composite	27,366.17	+0.64%
Russell 2000	2,806.98	+0.5%

Tone: risk-on into earnings season. Tech led, helped by lower oil and slightly lower yields. S&P 500 finished just under its 7,818.93 record close of Tuesday. Week: S&P +1.2%, Dow +0.9%, Nasdaq +0.6%, Russell 2000 -0.9%.

Leaders and laggards by sector: n/a (tech led; no sector breakdown sourced). Takeaway: dip buying held despite the highest Treasury yields since 2002, but the 10Y at 5.24% leaves little margin.

6. Asian markets: overnight session (Monday 12 October) [~06:00 BST]

Index	Level	Change
Nikkei 225	Closed (Sports Day)	n/a
Hang Seng	24,253.70	+0.2%
Shanghai Composite	3,809.08	-0.1%
Kospi	6,416.17	-3.1%
ASX 200 (morning)	8,789.20	+0.83%

Source: AP for Hang Seng, Shanghai, Kospi. ASX 200 is an intraday figure from a morning report.

Tone: mixed. Kospi led losses; China flat. Oil retreat on the Russia diesel comment limited energy-linked pressure. Kospi driver not confirmed.

7. Commodities [~06:00 BST]

Commodity	Level	Change
Brent	~$103-104/bbl	-$1.50 (Mon)
WTI	~$92/bbl (undated source)	n/a
Gold	~$4,194/oz	+1.47%
Natural gas	n/a	n/a
Copper (LME)	$14,295/t	-1.3%

Sources conflict on exact oil levels (Brent $103 to $104.72 across reports). Gold from one table. Copper is the Monday move.

Brent fell after Trump said Russia would supply diesel, after spiking above $105.50 on a Houthi strike on Saudi energy infrastructure.

8. Rates & FX [Friday data]

Instrument	Level	Change
US 10Y yield	5.24% (Fri close)	n/a
