Nasdaq 100 futures	n/a	n/a	Signalled further gains after record close (Bloomberg)

Collected approx 05:30 BST from one aggregated search snippet. Moves point to a lower open. Treat as indicative, verify on a live screen.

4. YESTERDAY'S CLOSES

Index	Close (6 Oct)	% change	Note
Euro Stoxx 50	6,272.23	+0.48%	Third straight gain. Healthcare, banks, SAP up. Schneider, energy, defence down
DAX	n/a	+0.7%	Sources conflict: +0.7% vs +0.06% (25,246). Level unverified
CAC 40	n/a	+0.4%	Sources conflict: +0.4% vs -0.8% in another report
FTSE 100	n/a	+0.42%	Another source: +0.34% at 10,498. Unverified
STOXX 600	n/a	+0.4%	Another source: +0.7%. First three-day winning streak in a month

Collected approx 05:40 BST. European close data conflicted across sources, so levels are n/a where not confirmed.

5. US MARKETS: YESTERDAY'S SESSION

Index	Close (6 Oct)	% change
S&P 500	7,818.93 (record)	+0.58%
Dow Jones	51,521.28	+0.49%
Nasdaq Composite	27,599.79 (record)	+0.45%

Tone: risk-on, led by AI and tech. Nvidia and AMD led. Power and utilities names jumped on the Google nuclear deal (Constellation +12% intraday). Yields eased from multi-year highs and oil settled.

Sector breakdown: n/a (no reliable full sector table found). Key takeaway: equities are shrugging off a bond sell-off and $100 oil on earnings optimism.

Collected approx 05:25 BST.

6. ASIAN MARKETS: OVERNIGHT SESSION

Index	Level (7 Oct)	% change
Nikkei 225	70,284.81	-0.9%

Shanghai Composite	n/a (market closed, national holiday)	n/a
Kospi	6,876.76	-0.9%
Taiex (context)	n/a	-0.2%

Tone: soft. Asia failed to follow the Wall Street records as elevated bond yields and renewed oil gains kept investors cautious. Source: AP.

Collected approx 05:45 BST.

7. COMMODITIES

Commodity	Level	Change	Note
Brent	$100.84/bbl	+0.51%	6 Oct. Other reports put Brent above $101. Houthi attacks on Saudi Arabia

Collected approx 05:40 BST (Reuters via Investing.com and Trading Economics).

9. DCM: PRIMARY BOND MARKET

YESTERDAY'S ISSUANCES

n/a. No reliable deal-level data (issuer, size, coupon, IPT) found in searches. GlobalCapital and IFR are paywalled. Check IFR and GlobalCapital directly.

PIPELINE / EXPECTED TODAY

n/a. No mandated or expected deals found for 7 October.

KEY SPREADS

Index	Level	Move	Direction
iTraxx Main	n/a	n/a	n/a
iTraxx Crossover	n/a	n/a	n/a
CDX IG	n/a	n/a	n/a
Avg euro corporate IG spread	n/a	n/a	n/a
French 10Y OAT vs Bund (context)	137bp (Mon 5 Oct)	from 85bp a month earlier	Widening

No current spread levels found. Latest iTraxx datapoint found was mid-May (Crossover S45 at 318bp), too stale to use.

COMMENTARY

Primary tone cannot be confirmed from sourced data. Context points to a cautious window: record oil, a global bond sell-off, French and Spanish political risk and a weak euro. Wider spreads and intermediate tenors were flagged as 2026 themes by GlobalCapital. Verify live conditions on IFR before relying on this.

10. ECONOMIC CALENDAR

Time (London)	Indicator	Consensus	Importance

Collected approx 06:00 BST. Consensus figures not available. Time zones for the US items are as given by source and may need checking.

11. CORPORATE EVENTS & EARNINGS

US: 8 companies report after the close, none before the open. Names include Applied Digital (APLD), Levi Strauss (LEVI), RGP and RELL (Earnings Whispers).

Europe: no earnings list found. Recordati reportedly set for a larger offer (Newsquawk, 6 Oct). Details n/a.

ECB's Elderson: supervisory refocusing exercise launches mid-October. BoE's Mann: supply shocks are embedding inflation.

12. STOCKS TO WATCH

Company	Reason	Probable direction
UK banks (Barclays, Lloyds, NatWest, HSBC)	Windfall tax risk after Healey meeting with bank chiefs, Budget 28 Oct	Negative bias
UK oil majors (Shell, BP)	Windfall tax on oil firms also under discussion, Brent above $100	Mixed
Airlines (IAG, Lufthansa, Air France-KLM)	Diesel at record, oil above $100	Negative bias
French banks (BNP, SocGen, Credit Agricole)	OAT spread widening, French fiscal worries	Negative bias
Recordati	Reportedly set for a larger offer (Newsquawk, 6 Oct)	Positive
Euro-area utilities and nuclear/power names	Read-across from Google and Constellation nuclear deal	Positive
SAP and European tech	Tech led US record close, SAP supported Europe on 6 Oct	Positive
Defence (Rheinmetall, BAE)	Weak on 6 Oct, Houthi/Saudi escalation is a counter-driver	Mixed

Names are inferred from sourced themes, not from company-specific news, except Recordati and the UK bank tax items. Shipping and mining items n/a.

13. MACRO / CORPORATE / POLITICAL HIGHLIGHTS

MACRO

FOMC minutes today. A source states the Fed hiked 25bp to 3.75%-4.00% on 16 September (12-0 vote). Verify before use.

US 10Y at 5.27%, after a 24-year high of 5.3493%. Bund 3.46%.

BoE's Mann: supply shocks embedding inflation.

CORPORATE

Google and Constellation: 890 MW, 20-year nuclear PPA, over $4.3bn of reactor upgrades, power from 2028.

Nvidia market value approaching $6tn.

Recordati: reported higher offer.

POLITICAL / GEOPOLITICAL

France: fiscal and budget risk, 10Y near 5%, deficit plan facing a divided parliament.

Spain: snap election on 29 November. PP likely to lead, possibly with Vox.

Middle East: Houthi attacks on Saudi Arabia, Brent more than 40% above pre-Iran war levels.

UK: Budget 28 October, windfall tax on banks and energy under consideration, energy bill support for poorer households.

14. KEY THEMES: TOP 5 BY HORIZON

TODAY'S TOP 5

FOMC minutes (19:00 BST): Tone on further hikes drives yields and tech.

French and Spanish risk: Bond stability decides euro and bank direction.

Oil above $100: Houthi/Saudi headlines move energy and airlines.

US 10Y auction: Demand test with yields near 24-year highs.

Eurozone retail sales: Read on consumer under an energy shock.

THIS WEEK'S TOP 5

Bond sell-off follow-through: Global yields near multi-year highs.

Early US earnings: Tests AI-led record highs.

French budget debate: Spread path versus Bunds.

Euro vs 1.116 low: Break would extend dollar strength.

Diesel and energy prices: Inflation and political fallout in Europe.

THIS MONTH'S TOP 5

UK Budget, 28 October: Windfall taxes on banks and oil firms.

ECB supervisory refocus from mid-October: Bank regulatory costs.

Q3 earnings season: Validates equity valuations at records.

Spain election run-up (29 Nov): Peripheral spreads and far-right risk.

Iran war and oil path: Brent at $100 sets inflation and central bank path.

15. KEY TRENDS TO WATCH

1 DAY

Lower European open indicated. Watch OAT-Bund spread, Brent, FOMC minutes at 19:00 BST and the US 10Y auction.

1 WEEK

French and Spanish politics, bond market stability, start of US earnings, central bank speakers (ECB, BoE).

1 MONTH

UK Budget 28 October, Spanish election 29 November, ECB supervisory review, oil near $100, Q3 earnings season.
