4. Yesterday's Closes (Thu 1 Oct)

| Index         | Close     | % change |
|---------------|-----------|----------|
| Euro Stoxx 50 | 6,175.45  | -1.49%   |
| DAX           | 24,939.35 | -1.03%   |
| CAC 40        | 7,835.31  | -1.62%   |
| FTSE 100      | 10,428.27 | n/a      |

Collected ~06:20 London. CAC 40 also reported at -1.38% (Trading Economics). Euro Stoxx 50 also reported 6,181 (-1.38%). FTSE 100 % change not sourced; worst day since May. One source showed DAX, CAC, Stoxx 600 at -0.6% and FTSE -1.1% earlier in the session.

5. US Markets, Yesterday's Session

| Index            | Close     | % change |
|------------------|-----------|----------|
| S&P 500          | 7,666.45  | +0.19%   |
| Dow Jones        | 50,926.56 | +0.04%   |
| Nasdaq Composite | 26,871.60 | +0.04%   |

Tone: stocks opened lower, then recovered as Treasury yields retreated from their highest levels in over 20 years. Leaders: chip and AI stocks. Laggards: n/a (sector detail not sourced).

Takeaway: indices flat, yield relief did the work. Energy-driven inflation remains the overhang. Collected ~06:20 London.

6. Asian Markets, Overnight Session (Fri 2 Oct)

| Index              | Level                      | % change | Note                                                               |
|--------------------|----------------------------|----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Nikkei 225         | 68,214.53                  | -1.08%   | After +3.1% to 68,840 on 1 Oct (chips, AI)                         |
| Hang Seng          | 24,613.27 (last close)     | n/a      | Closed 1 Oct for National Day, reopens today without Stock Connect |
| Shanghai Composite | 3,842 (last close, 30 Sep) | +0.3%    | Mainland closed 1 to 7 Oct                                         |
| Kospi              | 6,838.04                   | -0.48%   | Prior day +1.6% to 6,946 (does not reconcile, verify)              |

Tone: profit-taking in Japan and Korea after Thursday's chip-led rally. Thin liquidity in China. Collected ~06:25 London.

7. Commodities

| Commodity        | Level      | Change | Note                                                           |
|------------------|------------|--------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| Brent            | n/a        | n/a    | Sources conflict: $96.76 (-1.30%) to $102.31 settle (+4.37%) |
| WTI              | $92.63    | -0.26% | Trading Economics, 2 Oct                                       |
| Gold             | $4,182.37 | +0.59% | Another source: ~$4,198 to $4,209                            |
| Natural gas (US) | $2.946    | -2.64% |                                                                |
| Copper           | $6.51/lb  | -0.75% |                                                                |

Oil is the swing factor: stalled Middle East diplomacy keeps crude near $100 and European gas has reportedly doubled since late June. Collected ~06:25 London.

8. Rates & FX

| Instrument      | Level                                             | Change |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------|--------|
| US 10Y yield    | 5.24%                                             | -5 bp  |
| German 10Y Bund | n/a (topped 3.6%, highest since 2008, then eased) | n/a    |
| UK 30Y gilt     | n/a (briefly above 6%, highest since 1998)        | n/a    |
| EUR/USD         | 1.1316                                            | -0.12% |
| GBP/USD         | 1.32462                                           | -0.14% |
| DXY             | 101.64 (another provider: 102.08)                 | +0.17% |

Collected ~06:25 London. Dollar firmer on high US yields and dearer crude.

9. DCM: Primary Bond Market

Yesterday's issuances

n/a. No deal-level data (issuer, size, coupon, spread) could be sourced. IFR and GlobalCapital pages were not retrievable.

Pipeline / expected today

n/a. No mandates sourced.

Key spreads

| Index                   | Level | Move | Direction |
|-------------------------|-------|------|-----------|
| iTraxx Main             | n/a   | n/a  | n/a       |
| iTraxx Crossover        | n/a   | n/a  | n/a       |
| CDX IG                  | n/a   | n/a  | n/a       |
| Avg euro corp IG spread | n/a   | n/a  | n/a       |

Commentary

Qualitative only. Euro credit spreads have widened in recent days, most in the most indebted issuers. Drivers are macro: oil near $100, long-end yields at multiyear highs, heavy sovereign and AI-financing supply. Fundamentals are described as solid, and investors reducing duration while keeping yield are supporting demand. Window quality for industrials, transport, energy and financials: not verified.

10. Economic Calendar (Fri 2 Oct)

| London time | Indicator                      | Consensus         | Importance |
