Morning Briefing, Tuesday 29 September 2026

Generated: 06:35 London time (BST). Data collected between 06:15 and 06:35 BST. Yesterday means Monday 28 September.

2. Important News

Trump rejects Iran's Hormuz reopening offer; expects talks to resume this week (Euronews, Bloomberg, Newsquawk)

Oil jumped 3% on the news and Brent traded above $107 early Monday. Supply fears keep the inflation and rate-hike narrative alive.

US 10Y Treasury yield rises 9bp to 5.25%, a 19-year high (Bloomberg)

Bond selloff hit equities and gold. Fed rate-hike odds for October are reported near 70%.

FAA delays Boeing 737 Max 10 certification over a software issue (Reuters via CP24, MarketScreener)

Boeing fell about 7% and GE Aerospace about 3%. Read-across for aerospace suppliers and airline order books.

Gold falls to a seven-week low as rate-hike bets build (USAGOLD, Yahoo Finance)

Spot gold dropped about 3% to 4,148 while silver fell below $62. Non-yielding assets suffer as real yields rise.

European banks rebound: UniCredit, Deutsche Bank, ING up 1% to 3% (Reuters via aggregator)

Higher yields supported the sector while the wider Stoxx 600 ended flat.

3. European Futures (Pre-Open)

Futures levels for DAX, CAC 40, FTSE 100, S&P 500 and Nasdaq could not be reliably sourced this morning. A pre-market report said Euro Stoxx 50 and Stoxx 600 futures were flat to slightly higher (time of report unconfirmed).

5. US Markets: Yesterday's Session

Index	Close	Change
S&P 500	7,683.69	-0.77%
Dow Jones	51,481.51	-0.67%
Nasdaq Composite	26,820.38	-0.92%

Tone: risk-off. Treasury yields and oil rose. 8 of 11 S&P sectors fell.

Leaders: Health Care +0.29%, Staples +0.22%, Energy +0.11%.

Laggards: Utilities -3.12% (worst sector of 2026 year to date at -5.43%). Boeing fell nearly 7% on the FAA news.

Takeaway: the 10Y at 5.25% is the market driver. Equities struggle while yields make new highs.

Collected 06:15 to 06:25 BST (Yahoo Finance, CNBC via search summaries)

6. Asian Markets: Overnight Session

Tuesday session (29 Sept) is the latest. Levels for most indices were not reliably sourced. Monday's closes are shown for reference.

Key Spreads

Index	Level	Move	Direction
iTraxx Main	n/a	n/a	n/a iTraxx Crossover	n/a	n/a	n/a
CDX IG	n/a	n/a	n/a
Avg euro corp IG spread	n/a	n/a	n/a

Context only: a Macrostream headline this week said US and EU credit spreads widened as inflation fears resurfaced (levels not accessible).

Commentary

Primary conditions look cautious: yields at multi-year highs and Fed rate-hike bets argue for wider concessions and selective execution. This is an inference from macro data, not from deal data. Issuers in energy and financials are better placed than rate-sensitive utilities. Verify with IFR before acting.

10. Economic Calendar

London time	Indicator	Consensus	Importance
n/a	Eurozone consumer confidence (final, EC survey)	n/a	Medium
15:00	US Conference Board consumer confidence (10:00 ET)	n/a	High
15:00	US JOLTS job openings (10:00 ET)	n/a	High

11. Corporate Events & Earnings

No specific earnings or AGMs could be sourced for today. n/a. Boeing reports on 29 October.

12. Stocks to Watch

Boeing: FAA delays 737 Max 10 certification over software issue; fell nearly 7% Monday. Lower / volatile

GE Aerospace: Software issue linked to its technology in the FAA review; fell about 3%. Lower

UniCredit, Deutsche Bank, ING: Rebounded 1% to 3% on higher yields. Higher, momentum

Energy majors: Brent above $105 after Iran talks stall (inference). Higher

Gold miners: Gold at seven-week low (inference). Lower

Airlines: Oil above $105 raises fuel costs (inference). Lower

Utilities: Worst S&P sector in 2026; -3.12% Monday on yields. Lower / oversold risk

Items marked inference are not from a sourced move. Shipping and mining names: n/a.

13. Macro / Corporate / Political Highlights

Macro

Fed, ECB and BoE all delivered rate rises in September; speakers are explaining them this week.
