

MORNING BRIEFING

Generated: Sunday, 13 September 2026 · London time (BST, UTC+1) · Prepared ahead of the Monday 14 September 2026 European open

Weekend note: This briefing is generated on a Sunday, when European, US and Asian cash markets are closed. "Yesterday's close" below refers to the last completed trading session, Friday 11 September 2026. No Asian session has traded yet for the week of 14 September. Live Monday pre-open futures could not be reliably sourced (see Section 3) — treat this section as directional context, not a live quote sheet, and verify all levels against a terminal before trading.

2. IMPORTANT NEWS

Oil surges past $100 as US-Iran conflict escalates; Strait of Hormuz transits collapse

Reuters / CNBC / Al Jazeera — collected ~09:00 London, 13 Sep

Brent hit an intraweek four-month high near $109.97/bbl before easing; the single biggest driver behind the current inflation/rate-hike scare across equities, credit and FX.

Saudi Arabia's East-West pipeline (Abqaiq-Yanbu) struck and shut down

ABC News / Al Jazeera — collected ~09:00 London, 13 Sep

Kingdom's only non-Hormuz export route; Iraq's PM has ordered an investigation and Trump spoke with Crown Prince MBS on 12 Sep. Raises the risk premium on oil heading into Monday's open.

ECB hikes deposit rate 25bp to 2.50%; Lagarde calls it "a no brainer"

CNBC / Bloomberg — dated 10 Sep, collected ~09:00 London, 13 Sep

Second 2026 hike, explicitly tied to Iran-war-driven energy inflation (Eurozone HICP at 3.3% y/y in August). Sets a hawkish tone into the Fed's own decision this week.

US August core CPI +0.3% m/m (above 0.2% consensus); headline +0.4% m/m, +3.4% y/y

Bloomberg / CNBC — dated 11 Sep, collected ~09:00 London, 13 Sep

Hardens the case for a Fed hike — not a cut — at Wednesday's FOMC; sent the 10-year Treasury yield toward the 5% mark.

OpenAI will not IPO in 2026; Altman, Amodei and Musk publicly urge slowing AI development

CNBC / wire — dated ~12-13 Sep, collected ~09:00 London, 13 Sep

Follows a viral warning from an ex-Anthropic researcher; pushes any OpenAI IPO to 2027+ and could pressure AI-linked equity valuations into the week.

3. EUROPEAN FUTURES (PRE-OPEN, MONDAY 14 SEP)

| INSTRUMENT                | LEVEL | EXPECTED MOVE |
|---------------------------|-------|---------------|
| Euro Stoxx 50 futures     | n/a   | n/a           |
| DAX futures               | n/a   | n/a           |
| CAC 40 futures            | n/a   | n/a           |
| FTSE 100 futures          | n/a   | n/a           |
| S&P 500 futures (context) | n/a   | n/a           |
| Nasdaq futures (context)  | n/a   | n/a           |

Live Monday pre-open futures could not be verified this session: primary data providers were unreachable and generic search results returned stale or unverifiable cached snapshots (one aggregator showed a Euro Stoxx 50 futures figure identical to Friday's cash close, indicating a mirrored/stale number, not a fresh quote). Given the weekend Iran/Saudi-pipeline headlines, expect a genuinely news-driven, volatile open — check a live terminal before trading.

4. LAST SESSION'S EUROPEAN CLOSES (FRIDAY 11 SEPTEMBER 2026)

| INDEX            | CLOSE     | CHANGE |
|------------------|-----------|--------|
| Euro Stoxx 50    | 6,327     | +0.91% |
| STOXX Europe 600 | 637.60    | +0.3%  |
| DAX (Germany)    | 25,568.56 | -0.03% |
| CAC 40 (France)  | 8,179.77  | +0.28% |
| FTSE 100 (UK)    | 10,650.44 | -0.18% |

Euro Stoxx 50 figure is single-sourced — treat as indicative. Collected ~09:15 London, 13 Sep, via Reuters wire (cross-referenced across two independent aggregators for DAX/CAC/FTSE) and Trading Economics. Tone into the close was mixed-to-flat, but the week itself was Europe's worst since April (Stoxx 600 -2.2% w/w) as the ECB hike and surging bond yields offset Friday's modest bounce.

5. US MARKETS — LAST SESSION (FRIDAY 11 SEPTEMBER 2026)

| INDEX                        | CLOSE     | CHANGE               |
|------------------------------|-----------|----------------------|
| S&P 500                      | 7,656.98  | +0.86% (+65.28 pts)  |
| Dow Jones Industrial Average | 52,573.29 | +0.98% (+509.19 pts) |
| Nasdaq Composite             | 26,333.04 | +0.96% (+251.31 pts) |

Tone: Broke a four-session losing streak — the S&P's steepest 4-day decline since June — as oil eased off its weekly highs and hot CPI proved digestible rather than alarming.

Leaders: 9 of 11 S&P sectors higher; Technology, Industrials and Communication Services all +1%+, led by hardware/semis names.

Laggards: Healthcare and Utilities.

Key takeaway: A relief rally, but a fragile one — oil near $100-110, the 10Y yield near 5%, and Wednesday's FOMC decision remain unresolved into the new week.

Sources: AP wire (via ABC News/Washington Post syndication) and CNBC, cross-referenced with consistent figures. Collected ~09:20 London, 13 Sep.

6. ASIAN MARKETS — MOST RECENT SESSION (FRIDAY 11 SEPTEMBER 2026)

| INDEX              | CLOSE     | CHANGE |
|--------------------|-----------|--------|
| Nikkei 225         | 64,011.34 | -1.93% |
| Hang Seng          | 24,805.63 | -0.60% |
| Shanghai Composite | 3,888.11  | -1.18% |
| Kospi              | 6,909.91  | -1.76% |
| CSI 300 (context)  | 4,510.16  | -0.84% |
| ASX 200 (context)  | 8,741.2   | -0.89% |

Tone: Broadly risk-off across Asia-Pacific, driven by the same twin fears as elsewhere — surging oil (Brent above $109 intraday) and rising bond yields reviving Fed rate-hike bets. No newer Asian data exists yet: the week-of-14-September session has not opened as of this briefing.

Sources: Trading Economics / wire aggregators, cross-referenced across two independent feeds with matching figures. Collected ~09:25 London, 13 Sep.

7. COMMODITIES

| COMMODITY               | LEVEL (FRI 11 SEP CLOSE)                                     | CHANGE                                        |
|-------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| Brent crude             | ~$104.50/bbl                                                | -2.9% d/d, but +13% w/w                       |
| WTI crude               | n/a (range $96-104 cited, sources disagreed on exact close) | n/a                                           |
| Gold                    | $4,386.10/oz                                                | n/a daily (-1.3% over past month, +19.4% y/y) |
| Natural gas (Henry Hub) | $2.83/MMBtu                                                 | -0.11%                                        |
| Copper (COMEX)          | $6.47/lb                                                    | +0.04% d/d (+41.2% y/y)                       |

Brent pulled back from an intraweek four-month high of $109.97 as Fed rate-hike bets and Trump's comment that the Iran war is likely to end after the midterms countered supply fears — but is still up sharply on the week after the Saudi East-West pipeline strike. Copper remains near record territory (LME quoted as high as $14,533/tonne this month) on tariff front-running and a 1.1% H1 supply decline. Gold is holding near multi-year highs despite an unusual headwind: markets are now pricing Fed hikes, not cuts.

| EUR/USD                         | 1.1597      | -0.11%, near one-week low                           |
| GBP/USD                         | ~1.3550     | Roughly flat                                        |
| DXY (Dollar Index)              | ~99.10      | Firmer on hot US CPI/PPI and Fed hike bets          |

Sources: FXStreet, Trading Economics, fxpremiere — cross-referenced on DXY and EUR/USD. US 30Y figure per CNBC/NBC coverage, not independently confirmed as an exact Friday close. Collected ~09:35 London, 13 Sep.

Aggregate flow (CreditFlow Morning Kick-Off): EUR IG priced €15.275bn from 9 deals (4 corporate, 3 FIG, 2 SSA) across 17 tranches in the referenced session; week-to-date €42.625bn, beating the €40.9bn forecast. GBP £4.25bn and CHF 550m also priced in the same window.

PIPELINE / EXPECTED THIS WEEK

Meta Platforms — held a non-deal roadshow with European bond investors (week of 7-11 Sep) exploring its first-ever non-dollar (euro) bond. Not yet mandated; size/timing n/a.

SoftBank Group — planning a $10-20bn high-yield bond to refinance part of its $40bn OpenAI-related bridge loan; structure may include EUR tranches. Investor meetings scheduled; size/date for any EUR tranche n/a.

Hyperscaler pipeline — Amazon, Alphabet, Meta, Oracle and Nvidia have issued a combined ~$220bn IG bonds YTD 2026 (more than all of 2025), a continued source of reverse-Yankee EUR/GBP supply risk.

SSA — GlobalCapital describes the EU's "busiest-ever second half" of syndication activity; no specific next mandate confirmed (n/a).

No formally announced new EUR IG corporate mandates identified specifically for the week of 14-18 September — treat as n/a pending fresh announcements.

KEY SPREADS

| INDEX                         | LEVEL                                     | DIRECTION                              |

| iTraxx Main (Europe, 5Y)      | ~59-65bp (exact print n/a)                | WIDENING — HIGHEST SINCE MID-2025      |
| iTraxx Crossover (5Y)         | ~300-312bp (exact print n/a)              | WIDENING — HIGHEST SINCE MAY/JUNE 2025 |
| CDX.NA.IG                     | ~64bp (last confirmed print mid-May 2026) | n/a for September                      |
| Avg. euro corporate IG spread | ~120bp (undated, indicative only)         | n/a                                    |

Exact single-session iTraxx/CDX closing prints for 11-12 Sep could not be confirmed this session (live data feeds unreachable) — directionally reliable, not exact-print accurate.

COMMENTARY

The rates backdrop is genuinely stressed but the issuance window has stayed open. German Bunds trade near 3.3-3.5% and French OATs near 4.44% (30Y OAT at 2003-era levels) after the ECB's hawkish hike; swaps price three more quarter-point ECB moves by mid-2027. Despite that, books are still multiple-times oversubscribed on deals that price.

Industrials/transport: Bureau Veritas cleared comfortably (2.0x+ covered, inside IPT); Uber's €4.5bn debut — tied to AV/robotaxi funding — drew >€21bn of demand despite a high-yield-style process. Financials: Eurobank and auto-ABS supply (RCI, VW, SocGen-related) all upsized and tightened from IPT — FIG/structured technicals remain solid even as index spreads widen. Energy: no confirmed EUR energy-corporate benchmark this session, but the sector is the macro story of the week via the Iran-driven oil spike feeding the ECB's hawkish tilt.

Net read: window open but choppy. NIPs and cover ratios remain healthy on priced deals; the dominant risk into the coming week is timing a EUR benchmark around further rates volatility (ECB hawkishness, Middle East oil shock, US yield surge).

13. MACRO / CORPORATE / POLITICAL HIGHLIGHTS

MACRO

FOMC meets 15-16 Sep, decision Wed 2pm ET / 19:00 London. After Chair Warsh's hawkish 28 Aug Jackson Hole speech and a much-stronger August jobs report, markets have swung toward pricing a possible 25bp hike to 3.75-4.00%, though polls remain genuinely split.

August CPI: headline +0.4% m/m / +3.4% y/y, core +0.3% m/m / +2.4% y/y, gasoline-driven. August PPI final demand +0.4% m/m / +5.4% y/y.

August payrolls surprised sharply upward: +162,000 vs. +53,000 consensus; unemployment held at 4.1%.

BoE (Thu 17 Sep) and BoJ (17-18 Sep) also meet this week; ECB already hiked to 2.50% deposit rate on 10 Sep.

CORPORATE

Rio Tinto-Glencore's ~$260bn merger talks collapsed for a third time; Rio pivoted to the Aurukun bauxite bolt-on instead.

Big Oil's Iran-war windfall: five supermajors posted a combined ~$48bn Q2 profit, drawing political criticism from Trump.

Adobe beat and raised (10 Sep), crossed 1bn monthly active users, AI ARR +150% y/y — yet fell ~2% on monetization worries.

Notable recent M&A: Tata Motors-Iveco Group combination; Apollo stake in Atlantic Aviation (~$10bn valuation); WaFd-EverBank $3.9bn reverse merger; Eli Lilly's acquisition of Merida Biosciences; Paramount Skydance's pending $110bn/$31-per-share bid for Warner Bros. Discovery.

POLITICAL / GEOPOLITICAL

US-Iran conflict remains the dominant macro driver: a "tanker-for-tanker" campaign, the first US strikes on Iranian oil tankers (1-2 Sep), and the Saudi East-West pipeline strike have kept Brent near/above $100.

US fiscal deadline defused: a bipartisan continuing resolution extends government funding to 11 Dec, averting a shutdown around the midterms.

Trump is weighing a ~7.5% tariff on Chinese "flood" exports ahead of a planned late-September Trump-Xi meeting, layered on existing Section 232 copper tariffs already distorting copper flows.

14. KEY THEMES — TOP 5 BY HORIZON

TODAY'S / NEXT SESSION'S TOP 5

1. Oil open on Saudi pipeline fallout

Brent near $104-109 after the East-West pipeline strike; confirmation of a prolonged outage reprices energy and airline names at the open.

2. Positioning into FOMC week

Pre-positioning trades likely in bank and rate-sensitive stocks ahead of Tuesday's FOMC start.

3. Conference-driven single-stock moves

Goldman Retailing and Morgan Stanley Healthcare conferences begin Monday; guidance can move retail/healthcare names intraday.

4. Copper/gold follow-through

After copper's fresh record and gold near $4,400, Monday's Asia/Europe metals trade sets the tone for miners.

5. Iran-war headline risk

Iraq's pipeline-strike investigation and any statement from the Trump-MBS call could move oil and defense stocks intraday.

THIS WEEK'S TOP 5 (14-18 SEP)

1. FOMC decision, Wed 16 Sep

A live-priced possible 25bp hike plus updated dot plot is the week's single biggest catalyst for rates, the dollar and bank stocks.

2. Bank of England decision, Thu 17 Sep

A prior 6-3 vote split with a hawkish minority means scope for a guidance surprise for GBP and gilts.

3. Bank of Japan meeting, 17-18 Sep

Any policy shift compounds the global rate-decision cluster this week.

4. Trip.com earnings, Tue 15 Sep

A read on Chinese consumer travel demand.

5. Iran/Hormuz trajectory

Continued escalation or a diplomatic opening will dominate energy, shipping and airline price action all week.

THIS MONTH'S TOP 5 (SEPTEMBER 2026)

1. US-Iran war & Hormuz/Saudi pipeline disruption

The structural driver behind $100+ oil, elevated jet fuel and windfall profits/political backlash for oil majors all month.

2. Fed pivot toward a possible hike

Chair Warsh's hawkish turn since Jackson Hole reverses prior rate-cut expectations; the 16 Sep decision frames Q4 policy.

3. Rio Tinto-Glencore collapse & metals M&A

Consolidation activity amid record copper and gold prices tied to tariff front-running and supply tightness.

4. US fiscal deadline resolved to 11 Dec

Removes shutdown risk from markets through the midterm election period.

5. Trump-China tariff calibration

A proposed ~7.5% tariff on Chinese export "flooding" ahead of a planned late-September Trump-Xi meeting is a live trade-policy overhang.

15. KEY TRENDS TO WATCH

1 DAY

Reaction to the Saudi East-West pipeline shutdown and any repair-timeline update.

Early positioning in rate-sensitive financials ahead of Tuesday's FOMC start.

Follow-through in copper/gold after last week's record levels.

Airline/energy stock moves tracking the overnight Brent/WTI print.

1 WEEK

A rare same-week cluster of major central bank decisions: FOMC (15-16), BoE (17), BoJ (17-18).

Whether the Hormuz/Saudi pipeline situation escalates further or sees a diplomatic de-escalation attempt.

Conference season (Goldman Retailing, Morgan Stanley Healthcare, H.C. Wainwright, Piper Growth Frontiers) generating guidance-driven single-stock volatility.

US Treasury $18bn 20-year note auction (Tue) as a bond-market liquidity/demand signal.

1 MONTH

Durability of the US-Iran conflict and its effect on global oil supply chokepoints — the dominant macro risk for the month.

Fed policy trajectory following the September decision, and market/Treasury tension over the White House's push for lower rates.

Government funding CR through 11 December keeps a Q4 fiscal deadline live.

Trump-Xi planned late-September meeting and the fate of the proposed China tariff / trade truce.
